PERMIT EXEMPTION FOR EXPORT BY AIR NOT EXCEEDING S$1,000

Currently, under Singapore's Regulation of Imports and Exports Regulations (RIER), a permit has to be applied from Singapore Customs prior to the export of goods.

2. However, a permit is not required for the export by air of non-controlled and non-dutiable goods if the total value of the goods does not exceed S$400.
3. With effect from 1 July 2013, this threshold will be increased to S$1,000 to further support industry's need for a rapid turnaround time for air cargo. This change is summarised in the following table.

Previous exemption (before 1 July 2013)	New exemption (from 1 July 2013)
Non-controlled and non-dutiable goods exported by air not exceeding S$400 in total value	Non-controlled and non-dutiable goods exported by air not exceeding S$1,000 in total value

4. A permit will still be required prior to the export of goods removed from approved licensed premises, regardless of the total value of the goods.
